

Live the Perfection!

Steve Rossé

Principal Tuba Player of the Sydney Symphony
Sydney Opera House

Steve Rossé

The American Steve Rossé enjoys an exotic global career as a tuba performer and educator of brass music. Based in Sydney, Australia, as Principal Tuba with the Sydney Symphony Orchestra in the famed Sydney Opera House, Steve Rossé is also Assistant Professor at the Zurich HdK in Switzerland, and Lecturer at the Sydney Conservatories of Music. He is also Director of the Sydney International Brass Festival and TubaMania International, which hosts annual educational events for tuba and low brass throughout Australia and Asia, particularly in Thailand and Hong Kong .

Steve Rossé has been associated with some of the worlds finest orchestras, and has performed with the symphony orchestras of Boston, Philadelphia, San Francisco, San Diego, and has been previously Principal Tuba with the New Mexico Symphony Orchestra (USA), and in Europe with the RAI Tornio Radio Symphony Orchestra and the World Orchestra of Jeunesses Musicales.

Steve Rossé is also active in the film industry and can be heard on several major Hollywood and Australian movie soundtracks, including „The Lego Movie“, ” I, Frankenstein“, ” Happy Feet 2“, ”The Water Diviner“ and more.

Steve Rossé has been a recent advocate of new music for solo tuba and brass , and has commissioned and premiered dozens of new works around the world for solo tuba that are now published by Editions BIM, Kookaburra Music, and The Australian Music Centre. Most of these works have been recorded for YouTube and will be recorded for his upcoming solo CD.

Instrument

Steve Rossé plays the F tuba 181C “Belcanto” by Miraphone.

Contact

www.tubamania.com

Live the Perfection!

Miraphone eG · Traunreuter Straße 8 · 84478 Waldkraiburg - GERMANY
Tel. +49 (0) 8638 - 96820 · Fax +49 (0) 8638 - 82863 · www.miraphone.de